

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE TRAINING 2012

FOR MANAGERS AND PRACTITIONERS WHO ENCOUNTER
DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AMONGST THEIR CLIENT BASE

OUR COURSES

Domestic Violence: Dynamics and Best Practice

A one-day awareness course to assist professionals address the issues and challenges that they face when dealing with those clients who are experiencing, witnessing or perpetrating domestic violence.

Risk Assessment and Safety Planning Skills

A highly interactive training course designed to build upon existing skills and knowledge. Introduces practical tools that are relevant to situations where domestic abuse is present. Also explores best practice within the inter-agency context.

Tailor-made Courses

Carefully designed courses to address your agency's specific responsibility, and local and national requirements in relation to domestic violence, developed in close consultation with your agency. Courses aim to build the capacity of the participants, both individually and as a whole organisation, to respond effectively, consistently and safely to the issue of domestic abuse in all its forms, and at any stage of the process.

By increasing awareness and improving practice across all sectors, we can reduce the social and financial impact of domestic violence

"The vast majority of the gaps in the working practices of agencies, and the frustrations of staff dealing with domestic violence on a daily basis could be addressed by effective training"

*Completing the Jigsaw 2008,
Standing Together*

"I strongly feel we need regular training to increase professionals competence and confidence in dealing with domestic violence"
Delegate, DV Dynamics 2010

All of our respected courses are run by professional trainers who have specialist experience working within the domestic violence field.
