

PUBLICATION	UNIT COST £	QUANTITY	TOTAL COST £
Completing the Jigsaw Standing Together Against Domestic Violence were commissioned by the London Councils to undertake research into the extent of help seeking by known victims of domestic violence across various statutory and voluntary agencies. As a result of many months of examination of databases, interviews with frontline workers and a questionnaire with survivors we found that certain crucial issues emerged repeatedly.	£5
The Specialist Domestic Violence Court Toolkit The Specialist Domestic Violence Court Toolkit describes in detail every element of the process involved in developing, implementing and maintaining an SDVC, highlighting the importance of coordination. The Toolkit includes the tools and resources we have developed and used in the Specialist Domestic Violence Court at West London Magistrates' Court.	 £1,500 (This will include a days facilitation by Standing Together which will be tailored to meet the specific needs and context of each potential SDVC)
The Domestic Violence Bench Book and Good Practice Guide By Jan Lesser, Head of Legal Services at West London Magistrates' Court "This is a guide which is required reading for magistrates and lawyers and all professionals who deal with domestic violence in the criminal courts" - District Judge (MC) Jeremy Coleman. A unique resource to assist magistrates and DJs in SDVC's, it is designed to work as a route map through all the court processes experienced in an SDVC. It is the only such Bench Book in the country.	 Package for courts £100 (2 printed editions and electronic version to copy for staff and magistrates) For other agencies £25; (1 printed edition and no agreement to copy)
First Steps in Help Seeking Standing Together Against Domestic Violence and the Hammersmith & Fulham Refugee Forum are very pleased to present this report on what they have learnt in the pilot stages of their project in West London. Together they aimed to find out about how domestic abuse was experienced by the Refugee Community Organisations in the Borough and to develop a training module to meet the needs of those organisations.	 £5
Support at Court The experience of witnesses attending the Specialist Domestic Violence Court at West London Magistrate's Court The Standing Together partnership holds the safety of survivors as their over arching aim. The experience of survivors using the Specialist Court is therefore central to reviewing the success of that Court. Feedback has been sought using a number of methods and the results are relevant for other SDVC's and for all those working with witnesses in domestic violence cases.	 £5

PUBLICATION	UNIT COST	QUANTITY	TOTAL COST
Equal Voices Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender survivors of domestic violence speak about their experiences of policing and the courts in West London LGBT survivors were understood to be especially hard to reach and the difficulties in getting feedback from them is a reflection of their difficulties in accessing criminal justice services. This report will bring their voices to the attention of criminal justice and voluntary agencies. Equal Voices includes the findings of a questionnaire, two in depth interviews and an account of the process used to contact and consult. It will therefore be useful both to those agencies wishing to set up their own consultations and to those working to improve access for LGBT survivors. 	£5
Two Years On Partnership in practice at the Specialist Domestic Violence Court, West London Published June 2005. The Specialist Domestic Violence Court in West London was the first court of its type in London and the first in the country to hear trials. In November 2004 operational partners held the second annual review to identify good practice and areas for improvement. This report documents detailed qualitative and quantitative findings and lessons learnt. 	£2
Voices of Experience: Consultation with survivors of domestic violence in the London Borough of Hammersmith and Fulham 2003-2004. Published September 2004. Detailed report of our third year of consultation with survivors. Chapters on; Consultation with Filipino women; Survivor's views of using the Specialist Domestic Violence Court; taking part in Government's National Safety and Justice Consultation. Direct quotes from women throughout. 	£5
Survivors Speak: A report of the findings of consulting with survivors of domestic violence 2001-2002. Documenting the first round of consultations the report accompanies Heard and Not Judged, and outlines how the process was developed. Topics covered include: The Courts; The Police; Solicitors; Health Services; Responding to Black and Ethnic minority women. 	£5
Protecting Survivors, Holding Perpetrators Accountable The Crime Reduction Programme Health and Civil Law Projects in Hammersmith and Fulham, 2003. A series of briefing papers documents the processes, outcomes and lessons learnt. The briefing paper topics are: Introduction and Lessons Learnt; Civil Law Project; Health Project; Training; Expert Witnesses. Eleven appendices contain useful practical information, for example, police policy and procedures plus training objectives. 	£2

Health and Domestic Violence: Improving Safety Through Screening. A report on what has been achieved at three health sites in West London. Published July 2004. This report is an evaluative review of the Health Screening Project. It outlines the achievements of the project and also the complex issues and challenges faced from July 2003 to March 2004. It includes comments from survivors who accessed ADVANCE through the project, lessons learnt and Standing Together's recommendations for future of health based domestic violence interventions.		£5
Heard and Not Judged: Consultation with survivors of domestic violence in the London Borough of Hammersmith and Fulham 2002 – 2003. Topics covered include: Improving Health Services; Black & Ethnic Minority Women's Experiences & Views; The Specialist Domestic Violence Court (West London); Reviewing The Consultation Process. Importantly, the report also describes the unique methodology, outlining the process of organising the consultations, the meeting plans and the model used.		£5
TOTAL AMOUNT DUE

To receive your publication/s please complete the order form above and provide your details below. All prices include postage and packing.

Name

Organisation

Postal address

.....

.....

Postcode

Please send this form with payment to:
Standing Together, Room 44D, 4th Floor, Polish Centre, 238-246 King Street, London W6 0RF

Please make cheques payable to:
Standing Together Against Domestic Violence.

Enquiries:
020 8748 5717 or admin@standingtogether.org

For details of our other publications that are now out of print and for details of future publications, please go to our website www.standingtogether.org.uk